VOL XIX NO 37. CHARLEROI, WASHINGTON CO., FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 27, 1918. TWO CENTS

PLANS OR THE LIBERTY LOAN CAMPAIGN ARE FULLY EXPLAINED

Local Drive Will Be Pushed With Energy By All Committees

ALLOTMENT OVER A MILLION

A meeting of members of the Liberty Loan committee of Charleroi and surrounding communities was held in the Sunday school room of the Methodist church Thursday evening at 7:30 o'clock at which time the methods to be used in the campaign which opens tomorrow were explained

The meeting opened about fifteen minutes late, due to the fact that the local committee was waiting on the speaker who had been promised from Pittsburg, but who failed to put in an appearance. Mr. Daly, general chairman, in calling the meeting to order, said he was unable to say why the speaker had disappointed the audience as the promise given by the Pittsburg committee was explicit and definite, and they had been given all necessary information as to trams and their time of leaving.

However, in the absence of the speaker Mr. Daly, after calling the meeting to order, explained the plans to be used in the forthcoming campaign. He said the total issue was to be six billion dollars at 4 1-4 per cent bonds to be issued October 24, with interest payable April 15 and October 15; maturity in 15 and 20 years and tax exemption on certain amounts The plan of sale is to be the same as in previous loans either cash or the government partial payment plan, or by the week with arrangements through local banks.

Each member of the committee will be furnished 25 names of persons on whom they will call and they will report either subscriptions or no sale. All sales will be indexed on a white card, and a non-sale on red cards. Committee members will also be furnished with Liberty Loan buttons and Liberty Loan emblems to be placed in windows by those who purchase the bonds. All necessary application blanks and other literature will be supplied to committee members, so that when they call upon citizens to make a sale of bonds they they will be fortified with arguments. It will be the aim of the local committee to secure credit for all bonds sold to citizens of Charleroi, even though they be purchased in other communities. As Mr. Daly said, we will need it. Charleroi's quota will be over $1,100,000 and it is going to take a lot of work to dispose of bonds to this amount.

He also called attention to the plan announced by the Treasury Department to allow counties and towns throughout thecountry to name ships and tanks, providing they meet certain requirements laid down by the National Liberty Loan committee. Ten ships and ten tanks have been assigned to the Cleveland district, and Charleroi will have an opportunity to secure one of these honors.

The quotas for Washington county are as follows:—First district, 19; second district, 27; third district, 24; fourth district, 23. Fifth district 27. While these men may be selected, they will not leave their homes until further orders are issued by the government.

Charleroi Will Take Part In The Parade

If the weather is favorable Charleroi will be well represented in the Liberty Loan parade to be held at Washington Saturday afternoon. Not only Company F, of the Home Defense Police, but likewise a Division of automobiles will be a feature of the demonstration from Charleroi. All automobile owners who expect to go are requested to meet at the corner of Third street and Fallowfield avenue not later than 12:30 o'clock, p. m., Saturday, September 28, to make the run to Washington, where they will be assigned a place in the parade. It is further requested that all owners decorate their cars, then go to the Liberty Loan headquarters, 306 Fifth street, and secure Liberty Loan banners to be displayed on their machines.

Those interested in having Charleroi wel lrepresented in this parade call attention to the fact that the demonstration is not for the county seat, but for all of Washington county, and for this reason the Magic City should be well represented. The invitation to the people is general and cordial, and all who can conveniently arrange to do so, are urged to make their arrangements to be there. The parade is scheduled to move at 1:30 p. m. and by leaving Charleroi at 12:30 sharp there will be plenty of time for people from this section to arrive before the line of march is taken up

BUYS MORE ACREAGE AT DRAVOSBURG

The National Tube Company of McKeesport has added about 17 acres to its recently acquired 30 acres at Davisburg, having made the purchase the past few days from the Pittsburg Coal Company. The additional acreage lies above and below the first purchase, six acres adjoining the lower end and eleven acres the upper end. The property extends from the river back to what is known as the Washington road and has several frame dwellings on it. The sale is at the rate of over $4,200 an acre, compared with a little over $5,000 an acre for the Crump and Rescher holdings. The acquisition of this additional bottom land would indicate that the National Tube, which is a subsidiary company of the United States Steel Corporation contemplates some large extensions in the way of new mills.

PROTECTED HOME CIRCLE HOLD SOCIAL MEETIG

The Protected Home Circle at their meeting last evening added four members to their roster. The Deputy announced that all those who obtain one or more members between the present date and December 18 would be his guests at a chicken dinner at the close of the contest. Four have already qualified and at least fifty are expected.

A large number of friends of the local Circle attended the social program last evening and all the young folks had a jolly time.

PLENTY OF WOOD, BUT IT WILL TAKE WORK

Commenting on the recent instructions of the Council of National Defense, which has advised the people to burn wood in order to save coal, rivermen say there are enough abandoned barges and wrecked river craft to supply an entire town during a severe winter. The shores of the Allegheny and the Monongahela, especially the latter stream, are littered with timber, especially since last spring, when the ice wrecked craft of all kinds. However it would require considerable labor to reduce this timber to kindling wood but it would be time well spent.

The medical officer was bitter in his denunciation of the Huns and said their just punishment would come with a victorious peace.

GOOD WRITERS COUGHT NAPPING

Students of the English language have long known that the split infinitive is widely condemned and should be avoided, but every observant reader is aware that many good writers may occasionally be caught napping in this particular. The reason for this is not far to seek. To avoid placing the qualifying adverb between the "to" and the associated verb in every case appears at times to be difficult even awkward and it is only the very watchful who never offend the purists by such a collocation. A recent bold defender of the split infinitive repudiates the incautious assertion that the outlawed form is a modern perversion and wilfully splits an infinitive in contending that it is but a natural arrangement of words "to forcefully express thought"—refusing to say "forcefully to express thought" or error it is commonly believed to be. declares that he has found examples of it in Shakespeare and Massinger, and that other investigators have found it in Sir Thomas Browns, De Foe. Samuel Johnson, Burke, Lamb, Macaulay, Ruskin, Herbert Spencer. Coleridge, Matthew Arnold, Browning, Motley, Lowell and Holmes.

Even in the presence of these imposing names it remains to be said that other forms condemned by the grammarians may be found occasionally in both the classics and in prominent modern writers. and that in our time no careful writer who pays attention to style wishes to becaught perpetrating a split infiinitive. It is a question of whether one is to ignore or be guided by the consensus of the critical opinion of one's own period. The defender of the outlawed form says further: "Byron wrote. 'To slowly trace the forest's shady scene,' and on that account was dubbed 'the father of the split infinitive' by the London Academy. But before him Burns wrote, 'Who dared to nobly stem tyrannic pride.'"

This overlooks the fact that poetic license is supposed to permit what would be condemned in the prose of the stylist. If Byron had written, 'To trace slowly the forest's shady scene,' his rythm would have been shattered. but he would have avoided a split infinitive and perhaps would not have seriously disturbed his rythm if he had written. 'slowly to trace the forest's shady scene.' In the Burns quotation, however, "nobly to stem" or "to stem nobly" would have been equally disastrous. as the sensitive ear will perceive. It seems safe to conclude, therefore, that although the split infinitive can and should be avoided in prose, the demands of metrical form may require its occasional employment in verse.

WHEN JOHNNIE COMES MARCHING.

Few of us appreciated just all it meant when we watched the rookie Sammies march down to the depots on their way to the concentration camps a few months back. Some of us. refusing to believe that the war would last until they reached the front were inclined to smile at all the fuss that was made then. Some others, who had tasted in the bygone years of the sorrows of conflict, were deeply impressed. And still some others, as yet untouched by the call to arms, were mildly indifferent.

But now all of us are coming to realize what it really means.

Each succeeding casualty list carries some familiar name, some one we knew or whose people we know, or whose locality spreads out before us like a picture when we read his name.

The grim finger of affliction may point to most of the city [illegible]

It seems a long road to [illegible] at this time. We are only beginning to taste the bitter draught with [illegible] France, Serbia, Roumania, Belgium and indeed all the countries participating in the fight have been suffering for the last four years. And it may yet be for us to [illegible] deeply too.

But sooner or later there can be but one end, and Johnnie will come marching home triumphantly. World freedom will be saved. our own future insured.

And when that happens all of us will be down along the line of march our hats off, our hearts full to overflowing, our choked voices doing their very best to cheer the conquering heroes. It will be one of the big events in our lives.

But what of the man who didn't buy a bond.

God help him. where will he come in?

Don't be That Man!

Get ready to buy your bond.

THE LOCAL CAMPAIGN

That the local Liberty Loan committee will be "on the job" during the coming campaign is very evident from the splendid manner in which its starts the big drive, which is to end on the 19th day of October. The first demonstration to be given under direction of the committee is scheduled for next Tuesday evening, and from the attractions already engaged it issafe to assume that the preseint campaign is going to be one of the most intense of the series While wehave had features in all our campaigns. it looks as if we are going to have more of them and of greater variety in the fourth drive than in any of the preceding ones.

Capt. Curran, who is well known throughout the western part of the state, will be the principal speakr. and he will havesomething of the most interesting nature to say to our people. Aside from the speaking. however, there wil lbe other interesting features which will make the meeting of more than ordinary interest to our people. What our citizens should do now is to back up the committee in all its activities, that all of their efforts shall be followed by the best of results Charleroi has a heavy task ahead of it, but the committee believes our people are equal to the occasion. The thing to do is not to disappoint the committee in their expectations.

"WHO'S A DEMOCRAT?"

Henry Ford, the Detroit manufactured. who has been nominated as a candidate for the United States Senate on the Democratic ticket. wants it distinctly understood that he is not a Democrat. Henry sent a letter to the Democratic state convention of Michigan on Tuesday, in which he told the leaders of that party in that commonwealth that he would not subscribe to any of the planks in their platform, but would be guided solely by his own views on any and all public questions that might arise—providing he was elected.

In spite of this complete disavowal on the part of Mr. Ford. the Democrats have decided to take a chance on him and have promised him their united support. How far that will get him will be demonstrated next November, when the returns are all in. In the meantime son Edsall will come in for a great deal of consideration and our Democratic friend may find him a very heavy load as well as the man who. while willing to accept their favors. repudiates their political pretentions.

If a certain octogenarian of New Jersey had been in the predicament of Coleridge's "Ancient Mariner." instead of complaining of "water water everywhere nor any drop to drink," he would have leaned over thegunwale. dipped up a bucketful of brine and slacked his thirst. According to the story printed about him, this old man of eighty years "looks forty. has neither wrinkle nor gray hair and works ten hours every week day"—all because of a glass of sea water taken every morning! The results long ago convinced him that he had found his fountain of youth. As that fountain is as big as the seven seas combined, it can be no man's monopoly. There is enough salt water for us all—If we can force it down, after succeeding in swallowing the Jersey story itself..

Tired, Overworked Mothers What You Need is Vinol

War conditions have made the demand upon a mother's time and energy unlimited. In their zeal to do all in their power for their loved ones, they continually overwork and are soon in a nervous, run-down condition. Vinol, the non-secret cod liver and iron tonic, will build you up and make you strong

Whitman, Mass.

"I suffered from a nervous, run-down condition and loss of strength so it was hard for me to get around and do my work. After other medicines had failed to help me Vinol restored my health and strength and I heartily recommend it to anyone suffering from a nervous, run-down condition"—Mrs. R. M. Little.

Cleveland, Ohio.

"I keep house for my husband and myself and got into a weak, run-down condition, no strength, languid and no ambition. After doctoring for awhile and getting no better I tried Vinol and to my surprise it built me up and strengthened my whole system. It is certainly a good tonic."—Mrs. Wm. D. Dawson.

TOO MUCH SUGAR FOR ONE OWNER

Grains of sugar, leaking through the crevices of a trunk, got Joseph Eurock into trouble on Tuesday as he was on his way from Star Junction, Fayette county to Cleveland, over the B. & O. R. C Bledsoe, captain of the railroad police at Pittsburg, was notified by telegraph that on thetrain were two trunks from which sugar was leaking to the floor of the baggage car

When the train reached Pittsburg Capt. Bledsoe opened the trunks. He found 150 pounds of sugar in one: in the other 18 quarts of whiskey of two different brands. Half the sugar was taken from Eurocka and given to the Red Cross, while an information was also made against him for stealing whiskey. but on this charge he was set free on account of lack of evidence.

PUTTING THE "W" IN THE BLUE TRIANGLE

The "W" in the Y. W. C. A. stands for "Women in War Work." Its symbol is the blue triangle, the emblem of "The Girl He Left Behind Him." The three points of the triangle stand for protection, education and recreation. In color it represents faith, hope and charity. Its area is symbolic of the work the Young Women's Christian Association is doing to help win the war throughout the United States, in France, in Russia, and in practically all parts of the world.

GASOLINE BOATS IN COAL TRADE

New steel stern-wheel towing steamers and propellers are to be augmented on the Monongahela river by the adddition of gasoline boats in the coal transportation trade. The gasoline towboat Shifter No. 2 arrived in the Pittsburg harbor Tuesday and left shortly thereafter for Fairmont where it will enter the towing trade for the Lyons Coal company of that city. The boat will operate between Fairmont and Pittsburg on the Monongahela. The shifter is one of the most powerful boats of the type on western waters. It was built in 1811, and is of 50 horsepower. Previously it had been in the towing trade for the Pennsylvania Railroad on the Ohio river from Chester to points east of that town.

Another boat of the same type, the St. Dennis, is now on the docks at Neville Island, undergoing repairs and after they have been completed the boat will be used by the Monongahela & Western Dredging company for towing purposes. A third boat of this class is the Leone, which is being used by the Philadelphia & Cleveland Coal company to tow coal from the Victor mine in thethird pool to the Pittsburg harbor.

TWO PAIRS TWINS MADE BIG LOT OF WORK FOR MOTHER

They Caused Mrs. David Harris to Be All Run Down Till Nerv-Worth Came to Rescue

A royal friend for overworked women is this famous family tonic. One of the very strongest proofs of its wonderful merits is the following statement made to the Nerv-Worth druggist at New Castle, Pa., a short time ago:

New Castle Pharmacy—My wife has suffered from severe nervous trouble for four years. Could not sleep and get any rest. Was all run down from looking after my twin boys, four years old, and another pair of twins nine months old. She doctored a great deal but got no relief. Through a friend she was advised to take Nerv-Worth. I purchased a bottle and she at once began to improve. And now, after taking the second bottle she has lost all nervousness and is rapidly gaining in weight and strength. We surely recommend Nerv-Worth as it has been a blessing to us.

Cards From Boys Will Urge Buying of Bonds

Ten million sets of post cards—five in a set—have been sent to Europe by the War Loan Organization at Washington to be distributed among the boys of the American Expeditionary Forces.

By this time they probably have been put in the hands of the boys over there and some are probably on their way back to this country.

Each card bears a message from the boy to the home folks urging the home folks to invest in Liberty Bonds.

The cards bear photographs of tanks, guns, ammunition, etc.—things which the boys need and which the home folks' money will buy. The cards will be coming back soon in large numbers. Ohio and Kentucky and West Virginia and Pennsylvania will be receiving their share of them.

THE United States destroyers have done more than any other one thing to swing the balance of effectiveness in this war against the submarines. That is not brag. Any of the allied nations will bear testimony to it.

The average cost of a destroyer is $1,500,000. It doesn't take a mathematician to ascertain how many Liberty Bonds that means.

Then, and then only, will you be sure that your corn will loosen from your toe so that you can peel it right off gloriously easy with your fingers. Take no chances of continued pain and soreness—why use greasy, irritating salves, plasters that shift and press into the "quick," razors and "diggers" that make corns bleed and also grow faster? Use painless, easy, always sure "Gets-It." There's only one like it in the world—that's "Gets-It." Millions have tried and O. K.'d it for years. It never fails.

It stirs every American heart

Who was not thrilled to read of the American soldier who supported a wounded comrade, and fought his way with the little detachment back through the Boches to the American lines?

That is only one deed of heroism among the many happening every day and looked on as a matter of course by the boys fighting for us over there. It shows the stuff that's in them. They are our own sons and brothers. Is the same stuff in us over here?

We have the opportunity at home to show our patriotism by other deeds of valor. We can fight and we MUST fight. And we must WIN, no matter how heavy our burdens may be.

Our former habits are the Huns we've got to battle with. We can't go on living as we used to. We can't go on spending our money for things we like. We must set up new standards—war standards—and stick to them—loyally.

From now on there can be only one standard for those of us who fight behind the lines—by saving and lending

We must buy bonds to our utmost
